Data Agreement

We would like to keep in contact with you throughout the lead up to, and following this service, but it’s important that we have your permission to do so. We want to be clear about why we collect your information and how we use it, so we provide you with this explanation for you to read and sign.

We use an on-line tool to help us with the administration of our services and work and to help us stay in touch with you. We will probably need to be in touch with you about the service itself and would like to let you know that we’re still thinking about you and praying for you, and to let you know that you are always welcome at St Chads Sutton Coldfield. It may also be that the National Institutions of the Church of England¹ (NCIs), together with authorised representatives may like to contact you to let you know about, or ask for your opinion, input or feedback on the wider work of the Church of England. We are committed to protecting and respecting your privacy and complying with the latest Data Protection Acts.

For the purposes of Data Protection the Data Controller will primarily be St Chads Church Sutton Coldfield, Hollyfield Road, B75 7SN, but will also be the Archbishops’ Council, Church House, Great Smith Street, London SW1P 3AZ. We and they have agreed to be bound by the privacy policy found at www.pastoralservicesdiary.org/account/privacy .

By signing this agreement you are granting St Chads Church Sutton Coldfield and the NCIs permission to collect, process and use your information for these purposes. If you ever wish to stop receiving communication from, or change how you are contacted by NCIs or St Chads Church please e-mail data@stchadsc.org.uk with your request.

To the best of my belief the answers to the above questions are correct. I agree to use the information on this form as described below. I understand that I need to provide proof of ID such as a passport or driving licence
